Special provisions:

- The instructions of the organiser and its representatives must be followed at all times during the event.
- There is no contractual relationship between the organiser, the promoter and the event manager on the one hand and the participants, visitors, horse owners and riders/drivers on the other. Consequently, any liability for theft, injury to people and horses or damage to property is excluded. In particular, the participants are not "assistants" within the meaning of §§ 278 and 831 BGB.
- By submitting the written entry form or, if late entry is permitted, by arriving at the event site, the participant recognises the provisions of this invitation to tender as binding.
- Each horse must be covered by an animal owner's liability insurance policy; each horse must be free of (infectious) diseases and adequately vaccinated.
- Helmets are compulsory for children under the age of 18! Older participants are recommended to wear a helmet. (Adapted helmet - DIN standard - with 3 or 4 point safety device)
- A crash waistcoat is compulsory for all participants on cross-country rides and tests. Crash waistcoats are recommended for cross-country / forest rides.
